GENERAL INFORMATION

REGISTRATION

Hours: Thursday, 11:30 am-5:00 pm
       Friday,  8:00 am - 5:00 pm.
       Saturday,  8:00 am-5:00 pm
       Sunday, 8:00 am-10:00 am.

The Registration Desk is located in the foyer of the Imperial Ballroom (Mezzanine)
1. When you register, you will be given a registration badge.
2. Badges are to be worn at all sessions and are required for admission to ESS events.
3. Registered participants may request complimentary badges for their nonmember spouses.

ESS COMMONS

The ESS COMMONS is on the Mezzanine level in the Imperial Ballroom. It includes:
   - The Book Exhibit, which is described on the back inside cover of the program.
   - The Message Board, where participants can leave and receive messages.

Because too few job openings were submitted prior to program publication, the Employment Center will be suspended for this year. Please do check the Employment Services section on our website (http://essnet.org) for current postings.

COPIES OF PAPERS

The ESS does not sell or distribute papers or abstracts. Please contact authors directly to obtain copies of papers or to get further information.

SESSION AND PAPER LENGTH

Sessions are scheduled with the expectation that presenters and discussants will take approximately 15 minutes to make their initial presentations. This will allow time for discussion among the panelists and for audience participation.

Presiders should end sessions promptly to enable the following sessions to start on time. If there is no Presider listed, please appoint one from the panel for time-keeping purposes.

Next Year's Annual Meeting will be at the
The Baltimore Hilton

CALL FOR PAPERS

The ESS welcomes submissions addressing any and all issues of interest to sociologists, drawing on methods of every sort. In addition, the 2014 meeting will have a special focus on “Invisible Work.”

Work is central to collective life. But which work is recognized and valued? Paid jobs are only part of the picture. People also work to find and keep jobs and homes; to nurture others; to build communities; to access services; and more. Migrants and refugees work to sustain transnational families and build new lives. People work to establish and transform identities, protect privileges, and resist the indignities of marginalization. They work to make change. Children work, in the informal economy, as well as at home, in school, and in their communities. Many people have long worked in shadow economies; some have begun to create new kinds of local economies. And new technologies are producing novel forms of work that are only beginning to be understood.

A job description directs attention to some parts of a job and not others. Carework is valued in the abstract, but is rarely written into policy. Much of the work that sustains North American lives is performed elsewhere by workers who remain largely unacknowledged. The work that racial and ethnic group members do to resist oppression and prejudice is recognized within their communities, but is invisible to many in dominant groups. What kinds of change might be possible if these efforts were seen more clearly? This year, we invite submissions that re-examine this “generous” concept of work broaden its initial conceptualization, and reflect on its continuing relevance and transnational dimensions. In a time of ongoing economic transformation, studies of invisible, unpaid, unacknowledged, and under-valued work can contribute to scholarship, policies, and politics that take account of the full range of activities that sustain people’s everyday lives.

Although the ESS particularly encourages submissions related to this year’s theme, we welcome submissions on all sociological topics, drawing on all methods and formats in addition to:

- Individual papers (please include abstracts of 250 words or less; longer drafts are also welcome via email to the program committee)
- Wholly constituted sessions (with names and affiliations of all presenters)
- Thematic conversations (panels of two or more scholars engaged in debate or exchange)
- Workshops on specific topics and techniques (indicate the expert in charge)
- Master classes featuring a prominent scholar or Q & A sessions
- Roundtable and poster session presentations

Paper submissions and session proposals are due by October 15, 2013. Proposals for mini-conferences are encouraged by June, 2013.

The online abstract system will be up at the beginning of the summer. Proposals and questions should be sent to: easterns2014@gmail.com.

Program Committee: Marjorie DeVault (Program Chair and President), Lauren Eastwood, Elizabeth Higginbotham, Demie Kurz, Wendy Luttrell, Amy Lutz, Yingyi Ma, Jackie Orr, Frank Ridzi, Steven Vallas, Johnny Eric Williams.
